Future Artists of EXETER

CACHE is excited to be working with Exeter Unified School District art staff Angie Orr, Amy Smith, and Janeva Tollison to bring student artwork to our downstairs portable display walls. We are scheduled to exhibit artwork during three six-week periods, beginning in January and ending in late May. The first exhibit features artwork by elementary students, followed by middle school, and closing with high school compositions.

Exhibits include individually labeled work and a description of each class assignment. The current exhibit, which will be on view until February 17, features projects in Kente Cloth, Value Pumpkins, Kandinsky Line & Shapes, In a Jar, 3-Dimensional Line Sculptures, Mandalas, Oil Pastel Watercolor Resist, and Winter Chalk Scenes.

Visit us soon to see what the Future Artists of EXETER have come up with!

CACHE Hosts Leadership Luncheon

Dwight Miller, CACHE Board President, speaks during the January leadership luncheon.

We appreciate everyone who attended our community leader luncheon on January 30. The get-together began with a round of introductions from leaders from the Exeter Ministerial Association, Exeter Branch Library, Exeter Public Cemetery District, Exeter Women's Club, Exeter Lions Club, Exeter Unified School District, Football Boosters, Exeter Garden Club, Exeter Chamber of Commerce, Exeter Ambulance District, Exeter City Council, The Sun-Gazette, and the Exeter Mural Committee. Patty Spott, CACHE Secretary, spoke about our overarching purpose that includes connecting and supporting each other and communicating and preserving histories. Words were then given by CACHE's newly appointed Executive Director, Dawn Sabala. The event ended with inspiring speeches and thank-yous all around the room. Attendees enjoyed a delicious lunch prepared by the CACHE board of pulled pork, potato salad, salad, rolls, and cookies by local shop Just Dough With It.

We value each and every one of you and are eager to collaborate in innovative ways to better serve our community.

Museum Day Proclamation

Dawn Sabala (third from right), CACHE Executive Director, attends the Tulare County Museums Advocacy Day proclamation signing.

Thank you to Amy King, Tulare County Museum Curator, for inviting CACHE to attend the Board of Supervisors meeting on Tuesday, February 18, in which February 25, 2025, was proclaimed as Museums Advocacy Day in Tulare County.

In 2019, King created the Museum Alliance of Tulare-Kings Counties (MATKC), a group of cultural community organizations that came together in an effort to support each other and help make each other stronger. This proclamation is just one of the alliance's achievements.

Visit <http://matkc.org> for more information.
