Joy of Life Artist Reception

An artist reception was held at CACHE on Saturday, April 5, for Melinda Scott's stunning solo exhibit, Joy of Life. Her collection of highly detailed, realistic paintings depicts a wide range of subject matter, including nature scenes, people, and animals.

The event was well attended, and visitors enjoyed live music by Exeter local Houston Hoellwarth and stimulating conversation. The evening was catered by Hometown Emporium and included pinwheel sandwiches, fruit, vegetables, a bread and cheese tray, and delicious cookies. Thank you to Robyn Stearns and the rest of the CACHE board for making this happen.

High School Art at CACHE

View new artwork by the Future Artists of Exeter! This exhibit features work by Exeter Union High School students and will be on display until May 22. Thank you to their art teacher, Angie Orr, for working with CACHE on this fun exhibit.

High school art featuring O'Keefe inspired nature painting and Haring and Britto inspired pop art (not shown).

CACHE Supporter of the Month

We would like to recognize all of the amazing people that make CACHE what it is. This month we are highlighting our board treasurer, Laurie Hamilton. Laurie keeps all of our bookkeeping and finances running smoothly. We definitely couldn't do it without her!

Laurie's ancestors, the Griggs, Wallace, Cunningham, and Hamilton families, all have roots that run deep in Exeter. Although she has lived and traveled to numerous places and countries, Exeter has always remained her home base. That's something that we are very grateful for. Thank you for all your hard work, Laurie.

CACHE presents CACHE Chats: TALES OF EXETER AND BEYOND with Dwight Miller

Orange Harvest, Colleen Mitchell-Veyna and Morgan McCall, 1996.

BRUSHSTROKES OF EXETER HISTORY: The Art That Tells Our Story

Miller will discuss the history of the thirty-three Exeter murals and the twenty-five artists who created them, how the project started in the 1990s, who was involved, and how it was financed. The event will be held in the upstairs conference room at CACHE and is free to the public—$5 donations are encouraged.

MONDAY, MAY 12th | 5:30 pm

125 SOUTH B STREET, EXETER, CA 93221
WWW.CACH-EXETER.ORG | (559) 592-5900

CACHE will be hosting a new local history talk by board president, Dwight Miller, from their quarterly series CACHE Chats: Tales of Exeter and Beyond. Dwight's discussion is scheduled for May 12 in the upstairs conference room, and the topic is "Brushstrokes of Exeter History: The Art That Tells Our Story."

Miller will discuss the history of the thirty-three Exeter murals and the twenty-five artists who created them, how the project started in the 1990s, who was involved, and how it was financed.

This event is free to the public; $5 donations are encouraged. For more information, visit our website at www.cach-exeter.org/events.
